Incident Japanese contractor, Jonah Cummings and C. Wadley, Gaylor and Corey got their cases postponed to the others pleading guilty.Dondero explained that his machine was going just a little over the speed limit and in broad daylight on a quiet street, but Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Brown, though admitting that none of the defendants are "scoorchers" and that they usually drive their machines at a low rate of speed, declared the law should be observed and would not recommend that the cases be dismissed.Many of the men who were arrested by the motorcycle sleuths say that they have been going about twenty miles an hour only. Considerable comment on the cases has arisen, some of the defendants declaring that they have been singled out for arrest while drunken parties whirl up and down the principal streets of the city each night, constituting a real menace to safety.The case against John Mattos, who pleaded guilty, was stricken from the calendar. He told the court that he was hurrying on his machine to get a physician to come to his dying child at his house. On this showing, Judge Monsarrat let him go.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Ringo Shima is bringing a divorce suit against Fuji Shima for desertion.The Territory through the land commissioner, Charles S. Judd is taking action to have one Hee Fat pay up his rent for land on Kauai or get out.Mr. Clarence Ayehod, who has been staying in Honolulu with relatives, is leaving for San Francisco Wednesday morning. He leaves many friends to regret his departure.The Japanese freighter Bujo Maru which arrived off the port this noon will be brought to Hackfeld wharf tomorrow morning. The vessel is carrying eleven cabin and one hundred and twenty steerage passengers to Japanese ports.There are three appointments hanging fire at the present time. There is the outdoor man for the market scheme, the man to take Dr. Pratt's place as physician on the board of health and also the appointment of a man to fill Commissioner Howell's place on the Maui loan fund commission.A mistake was rectified in the court this morning before Judge W. J. Robinson in connection with the case of Kenjiro Sakamoto against Komeyo Sakamoto. On a previous occasion the libellant stated that he had only been in the country a year and the case was dismissed. Now this morning he brings an affidavit into court stating that he has been here two years. He has recovered his loss of memory and also his right to go on with the case which has been set on the calendar again.

STATEROOMS GO BEGGING
ON STEAMSHIP SIERRARoom For One Hundred Additional Passengers—Music as Mauna Kea Departed For the Island of Hawaii—Bujo Maru From Infected Ports to Be Fumigated—Hilonian to Lose Its Chief Engineer—Several Changes in Officers.Three thousand cubic feet measurement of freight has been offered the Oceanic steamship Sierra for shipment to the mainland. The liner is departing for San Francisco tomorrow morning, taking at least twenty thousand cases of preserved pineapples, a thousand tons of sugar, quantities of rice, coffee and hides. At the office of C. Brewer & Co. one hundred and twenty passengers have booked and there is a possibility that others will secure transportation before the hour of sailing. The Sierra has accommodation for two hundred and twenty-five first class passengers and as bookings stand at present it would appear that the vessel will depart with many vacant staterooms.

Hilonian to Make Short Stay.

Captain Peterson does not intend to remain long a visitor to Honolulu.
As master of the good ship Hilonian he has received orders which call for his departure for island ports, including Kahului, Kaaunapali, Port Allen and Hilo on or about eight o'clock this evening. The Hilonian was an arrival off the harbor shortly after 9 o'clock last night. The vessel showed up too late for practice by the Federal quarantine authorities but the steamer was promptly entered this morning and came alongside the Hackfeld wharf, there to discharge a cargo amounting to nearly two thousand tons. The freight list includes quantities of beer for the parched throats of over-heated mankind while there are generous consignments of feed of famished equines. An assessment of wine, oil and general lines of supplies has been discharged here.
The Hilonian brought no passengers as she carried 1211 cases of dynamite besides shipments of gasoline and oil in drums.

Many Inter-Island Steamers Depart.

Beginning at ten o'clock this morning, a number of coasting vessels in the inter-island service took their departure. The Mauna Kea with a score or more passengers who intend to visit the volcano sailed for Hilo. The vessel carried a goodly list of cabin and deck passengers for the various ports of call. A fair sized freight were dispatched for Maui and Hawaii. The Iwalewa with general lines of supplies sailed at noon for Mahukona and Kawaihae. The Waiilele followed at the same hour with destination as Honokaa, Paauhau and Kukuihaele. The steamer Likelike was also dispatched at the noon hour for Hawaii ports of call taking extensive shipments of fertilizer and lumber.

Twenty-three Million for Wharves.

The near approach of the time when the Panama Canal will be an important factor in world maritime commerce, has awakened the shipping interests of Buenos Ayres to the urgent need of better wharves. Approximately twenty-three million dollars has been set aside for improvement of the already large facilities at South American port.The contract for the extension of the Buenos Ayres docks has, as previously announced, been awarded to the well known British contractors, Messrs. C. H. Walker and Co. (The

The American schooner W. J. Patterson with a full shipment of lumber from Grays Harbor should arrive at the port at any date. The vessel is now twenty days out from the Pu-Mindoro Made Fair Time.

The American schooner Mindoro made a fair passage from Honolulu to Seattle, arriving at the Sound in twenty-six days. The vessel left a shipment of lumber here.

RECREATIONS

CYCLISTS MAKE GOOD
IN RIDE FOR LIFEBoth the Bijou and the Empire theaters put on fairly good bills last night, that of the Bijou being particularly strong, owing to the really meritorious work of the Elders, cyclists, who besides pulling off some tricks, are daring in the extreme.The much-advertised "ride for life" is really a thrilling performance, and not a few of the spectators turned their eyes away, unwilling to witness a possible accident. A number of rides down the inclined ladder were made.
The Bell trio was up to its high standard and interpolated specialties with its chorus singing in an acceptable manner. Mme. Leonora Harrison was a little hoarse last night, but sang charmingly nevertheless.Over at the Empire the feature was the appearance of the O'Hagans, a singing and dancing trio, who figured principally in a rough-and-ready sketch that had to do with an irate father, a lovelorn daughter and her lover disguised as a burglar. The comedy was pretty thin in spots and rather loud in others and most of it was rattled off so fast half of the audience couldn't get the drift of it. A good bit of work was done when the burglar-lover and a policeman meet.
The O'Hagans work hard and deserve to succeed on that score.Lottie O'Malley had a schoolgirl dance that was far ahead of her singing. Neither were sensational.FORTY-SIX APPLY FOR FIFTY-ONE LAND LOTSForty-six applicants applied for fifty-one lots in the Omoa tract, Kauai, for the Omoa Settlement Association at the drawing which took place at the land office this morning.Land Commissioner Charles S. Judd leaves this evening for Kauai and will be present at the selection of the lots.
This is the first of a series of trips he is to make in order to get acquainted with the various land questions.COMMITTEE TO DISCUSS RULESFast-growing opposition to the proposed regulations for freight on local wharves, as contemplated by the harbor commission, took the form of an announcement of a joint committee of six from the chamber of commerce and the merchants' association to investigate freight-handling and report back to the commercial bodies their recommendations. The committee was announced this morning, consisting of T. Clive Davies, George Rod-dieck and W. H. Hoogs from the chamber of commerce and Norman Watkins, J. H. Drew and Fred Macfarlane from the merchants' association. Richard Ivers was originally named from the chamber of commerce but was unable to serve and Hoogs took his place.The meeting of the two commercial bodies yesterday afternoon, in account of which is given in another column, had several alternates. One of them is that members of the harbor commission feel aggrieved that they were not invited to attend the meeting. Secretary Berndt, when asked about the matter, said this morning that no invitation was extended the commission. Secretary H. P.
Wood of the chamber of commerce, however, says that every member was invited to be present, the invitations being given by telephone. As it was, James Wakefield was the only member who appeared to speak, and he voiced his views only as one member of the commission.Another interesting matter came up when the businessmen endeavored to find out if the commission proposed to adopt the rules as sent out. Mr.
Wakefield said that he understood they were only suggestions. In answer to this a letter was read from Marston Campbell, chairman, the purport of which was that the commission intended to take action tomorrow, and that any suggestions or objections on the part of businessmen should be made before that time.Secretary Berndt this morning explained that the letter was based on resolution passed at the last meeting.
"We had tried by asking suggestions by letter to get a line on what the businessmen wanted, but got only five replies," he said. "It seems that this protest on the part of the businessmen comes very late."

NOW EXPECTEDEwa plantation is expected to produce at least two more two percent extra dividends, following the announcement yesterday that a two percent had been decided upon by the directors. With a crop of more than 35,000 tons, a large amount of which is getting to market with sugar at a very high price, the stockholders confidently expect that the company's past record of 18 per cent, counting extras, will be again equalled.Announcement was made today that Onomea Sugar Company will cut up an extra of fifty cents per share for September 5, in addition to the regular thirty per cent dividend.Waialua, now on a seventy-five cent per share monthly dividend basis, is looked upon a certain to declare an extra soon, and it is reported that the extra will be at least one and one-half per cent. Waialua also has a record crop, according to latest estimates, and there is talk that the company may go to a one per cent regular dividend basis instead of the present "three-quarters of one per cent."The local market was quiet this morning considering the fact that sugar stands at only a fraction under five cents. Some more McBryde six per cent bonds were sold, following the heavy transfers of the past few days. Oahu Sugar fell off a quarter of a point and the lower price produced several sales at 31.75. Hono-kua was active at 12.50 small blocks changing hands and 30 Hutchinson went for 16.50 a quarter point advance. A good deal of Mutual Telephone stock went at 16.50. Hawaiian
